Material for reply to Rajya Sabha Unstarred Question Diary No. S1416 for 27.07.2015 regarding "Vacancy of Pro-Vice-Chancellors".

Q. (a) Whether it is a fact that the posts of Pro-Vice-Chancellors are lying vacant in 25 percent Central Universities across the country.

Reply: It is for UGC to respond. However, as far as the Jawaharlal Nehru University is concerned, it is to mention that the post of Pro-Vice-Chancellor has been named as 'Rector' in terms of the Statutes of the University since inception and at present no post of Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Rector) is lying vacant in the University.

Q. (b) If so, the details thereof and since when these posts are lying vacant.

Reply: At present in the University, Professor Sudha Pai is holding the post of Rector-I and Professor Prasenjit Sen as Rector-II

Q. (C) The steps taken by University to fill-up the vacant posts of Pro-Vice-Chancellor and permanent teaching faculties?

Reply: The steps taken by University to fill up the vacant posts of permanent teaching faculties:-

In addition to issuance of regular advertisement, the University has been sending the faculty advertisements to various Universities/Institutes in India for wider information as well as uploading the same on the JNU website and on UGC/MHRD portal. University has also decided to issue Rolling Advertisement to enable the prospective candidates apply throughout the year against recurring vacancies.

At present the University is holding around 8-10 Selection Committees for filling up the vacant faculty positions every month which will add to the existing strength of filled positions.

The entire process/cycle of recruitment is very methodical and every step has to be completed/fulfilled before moving into the next step. Hence, it also becomes sometimes time consuming.
