Area-I

Categorization of Journals for Area-I

Category C

No referred journals can be categorized as C and D in Area-I

Area-III

Area III faculty members met to decide the categorization of journals in which they generally publish the work. It was agreed upon unanimously that:

We don't find any journals that can be categorized as 'C' or 'D'. The impact factors of the journals are available on the website www.thomsonrenters.com.
