APPEAL TO THE STUDENTS

It has come to the notice of JNU Administration that a heated argument followed by altercation among the students' group took place in Kaveri Hostel. Taking serious note of the incident, the Vice Chancellor, Rector and other officials visited the Hostel and met the students. The Vice Chancellor conveyed that no violence will be tolerated on Campus and appealed the students to maintain peace and harmony. The Vice Chancellor asked the Wardens present there to take immediate steps to avoid any confrontation. Security has been instructed to be vigilant in preventing such incidents and submit a report immediately to the JNU Administration.

JNU Administration reiterates its resolve for the zero tolerance towards any form of violence on campus. The students are also warned to refrain from involving in such incidents which disturb the peace and harmony on Campus. If anyone found indulging in such acts, they will be liable for disciplinary action as per University rules.
